

KILNINFORD NEWS

Issue 10

September 2001

LOCAL TELEPHONE DIRECTORY

The Kilninford News distribution list contains the names, addresses and telephone numbers of all residents in the parish of Kilmelford and Kilninner, listed in geographical areas, and it occurred to us that many of you might find it useful to have a copy.

We are therefore planning to sell copies and to up-date the information regularly in the newsletter as people come and go within the area.

If anyone would prefer to be "ex-directory", please contact Cath Manchester on 01852 200257 (Work) or 01852 200272 (Home) and their contact details will be omitted from the list. (They will continue to receive a copy of the Kilninford News.)

The Directory will be available for sale at £1 per copy in November. The proceeds, along with surplus funds which accumulate from our advertising in the Kilninford News, will be donated to a deserving cause which is still to be selected.

Would anyone wishing a copy of the Directory please leave a note, with payment, in the Kilninford News letterbox in Kilmelford Post Office. Alternatively, please send your request to Cath Manchester at Eas a' mhuilinn, Kilmelford, Oban PA34 4XA enclosing an s.a.e. and your £1 payment.

Anybody wishing to place an advert in the Directory (same rates as newsletter adverts) should also contact Cath by the end of October. Unlike the newsletter, we don't know what the circulation numbers will be, but the shelf life of the Directory will inevitably be much longer than that of the newsletter and therefore it should be a good advertising medium for local businesses.

A PLEA FROM THE TEAM

Time flies and it's hard to believe that this is the 10th issue of the newsletter. The small editorial team are all busy people who give up their time willingly to produce the publication. However, it is a time consuming exercise and having to chase people repeatedly for adverts, information on events etc. that they want to appear does add considerably to the time it takes to put the newsletter together. It would make a huge difference if people would note when the next newsletter is due (the newsletter is distributed in April, September and December) and get information to us, preferably without even having to be asked, but at least without having to be reminded repeatedly.

Co-ordinator – Mandy Carmichael (Tel: 01852 200362)

Outdoor Football – Primary 4 –7's from Craignish and Kilninver Schools enjoyed some excellent matches on Thursday evenings but, although Kilninver won some of the matches, Craignish emerged the overall victors again. Many thanks to Norman McNiven and Alastair Peterson for all their help. These sessions will resume after the winter.

The Kilfern Football Club – the club, for players over the age of 16, is open to challenges. Anyone interested should get in touch with Alan Manson (Tel: 01852 200315)

Badminton Club – the weekly Tuesday night sessions will be starting again on 16th October in Kilmelford Village Hall from 7 p.m. till 10 p.m. All ages from Primary 7 upwards are welcome for the first two hours and the final hour is reserved for young adults and older. Please note that there will be no badminton on 23rd October and 16th November.

Country Dancing – Mike Murray has kindly agreed to come and teach these popular classes again. His long trek from Crinan on cold winter evenings is made worthwhile when the sessions are really well attended.

Classes are held in the Village Hall from 8 – 10 p.m. approximately 3 out of 4 Thursdays per month starting on 4th October. Further dates should be available at the first session and if you haven't attended before it's particularly helpful if you can come to the first session.

All welcome, beginners and experts alike. £2.50 per person per session.

KILNINVER PRIMARY SCHOOL

What's been happening

Primaries 6 and 7 took part in an energetic week of outdoor activities at Castle Toward Centre in Dunoon in May.

Primaries 1,2 and 3 have been hard at work finding out about the village of Kilmelford. Before the holidays, they had great fun at the Fire Station, Boatyard and Village Store. Mike Erskine showed them round the Church before giving the group a guided tour of the graveyard! The project ended with Annie treating the children to juice and goodies at the Quaich Café.

The infant class were sorry to see Miss Stoker leave in June. Miss Stoker is off to live in Skye and everyone in the school community wishes her well.

The Summer Fayre again proved a great success with over £500 being raised towards school funds. The other traditional summer event, the Sports, took place this year at Glenfearnach, courtesy of the Campbell-

Gibsons who generously gave use of the field. What a glorious summer afternoon it was!

At the Summer Assembly in the Hall, Primary 7 pupils, Jennifer Brown, Kathryn Birrell, Alan Stoddart, Riona Peterson and Rowena Henderson received Citizenship Awards from Chief Inspector McIntosh. To gain the award the pupils took part in a series of activities looking after and caring for others, and as members of the Pupil Forum. The pupils are all now settling in to their respective secondary schools.

The Gaelic Choir have continued their successful year by winning their competition at the Oban Mod, and more recently coming second at the Lochgilphead Mod. They are now looking forward to preparing for the National Mod of 2002 in Largs.

On the Music front, the school had their largest representation for many years at the Highlands and Islands Music and Dance Festival. There were many successes, but the most important thing for all at the school was that everyone did their very best and as usual were great ambassadors for the area.

SCHOOL DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

Tuesday, 9th October – Harvest Assembly at Kilninver Church, 2.30 p.m. for 2.45 p.m.

All welcome.

Friday, 2nd November – Family Quiz Night at the Cuilfail Hotel, 6.30 p.m. for 7 p.m.

ROXANA ATKINS

As those who knew Roxy will testify, she was a character and she was much loved and is sadly missed by her friends.

CASTLEMILK INTER-CHURCH REFUGEE CENTRE

Keith and Eileen Baxendale, who co-ordinate the relief work, were very grateful for everyone's generosity in donating clothes etc. for the use of the Castlemilk refugees, nearly all of whom are in touch with the centre.

They estimate that there are now around 300 refugees in Castlemilk, who escaped from a wide range of countries. A further 100 are expected soon. The largest contingents are from Iran and Iraq. The financial cost of escape is generally high, so most were formerly prosperous people in their own countries. On arrival, refugees are assigned temporary accommodation, pending Home Office decisions on their future, in tower blocks (i.e. in accommodation, unwanted by local residents, which is thought to be due for demolition). Each is given the most basic necessities (e.g. 1 cup, 1 knife, 1 fork etc.) plus food vouchers and an allowance of £10 per week. It is very much subsistence level provision.

Enough clothes are now available to meet needs for the next two or three months, but other items are in short supply. These include:- Bedding, Cutlery, Crockery, Pots and Pans (especially large ones suitable for cooking rice) Toiletries and Cosmetics, Small Tables (especially nests of tables), Table Cloths and Tray Cloths, Clocks, Watches and Radios, Pictures and Decorations.

If you can spare any items of this sort, please leave your donation at the Manse so that it can be forwarded to Keith and Eileen in due course.

BARNARDO'S TREK PERU

Many thanks to all who helped towards the grand total of £3,600. A slide show of the trek is in the pipe line – details to be announced.

KILMELFORD AND KILNINVER SUMMER FESTIVAL

After a lot of uncertainty about the future of the Summer Festival it was good to see so many people on the day.

Many thanks to Clare Howard for the painting of the signs directing everyone to the Village Hall. They looked great and were a positive boost to the feelings that the Festival should continue and not be allowed to sink into oblivion.

In spite of the fact that a number of regular entrants were away, the displays in the schedule classes were colourful, imaginative and artistic.

There was a wonderful buzz in the hall and plenty of chatter at the tea tables. Many thanks to all who helped with the preparation, washing up and the provision of baking and sandwiches. Also thanks to Elspeth Campbell for running the ice cream stall keeping everyone cool.

The sun shone happily on the burger barbeque with Chef Mike Erskine and Mandy and Colin Carmichael providing portions of delicious prawns. Many thanks to them and to Helen Thompson, Laura Erskine, Falcon and Jane Scott and the Oatts family for organising and running their competitions.

Clare's "last minute raffle" was an enormous success and thanks to everyone who provided such generous prizes.

Dave Milward ended a good day with an auction of donated vegetables and extra cakes.

The day raised a total of £765, a very worthwhile contribution to help support community projects.

NEW ARRIVALS

Congratulations: -

To Diane and David Galt, a daughter Cara Campbell on the 12th of April.

KILMELFORD AND KILNINVER COMMUNITY COUNCIL

The community council held an ordinary general meeting and the annual general meeting on 12th June 2001 at Kilmelford Village Hall.

The main issues discussed were:

Road safety at Kilniver School- it was reported that a quote for flashing lights was to be received shortly, and hopefully accepted by the council (the works have subsequently been carried out). There are mixed feelings over a speed limit in the vicinity of the school.

Timber Extraction at Scammadale- the proposed extraction route through Scammadale Glen has been objected to, and a site meeting between all parties would soon be arranged to discuss the options.

Loch Melfort Beach Clean- this was reported as a success and raised a total of £615.

Blaran Road End- this long running saga may now be resolved as it was reported that the council have plans for major road repairs between Oban and Lochgilphead.

M&K MacLeods have a planning application for houses on The Glebe to be discussed at the Area Committee meeting, as it was originally subject to a number of local objections.

The possibility of the community purchasing or leasing land for a permanent sports/recreational facility was discussed, and the land immediately behind the village hall was identified as having greatest potential. This matter will be further investigated.

The next meeting of the Community Council will be held on Tuesday 25th September, 2001 in Kilmelford Village Hall.

WANTED

Willing volunteers to assist in grounds maintenance at Kilmelford Village Hall

The Hall Committee is trying to set up a rota of local people interested in taking a turn to trim/mow/weedkill the hall grounds during the Spring and Summer months.

Anyone interested for next year should please contact the Hall Caretaker:
Deirdre Campbell-Gibson: Tel. 01852 200224

LOCH MELFORT ANNUAL BEACH CLEAN 2001

(The Argyll and Bute Trust will provide a grant of over £700 towards local children's charities, groups and activities, based on the mileage of shoreline cleaned)

On 29th April, a small team of community spirited volunteers (yet again, too few to mention) turned up to assist in the Loch Melfort beach clean.

Our efforts were subsequently bolstered by a tremendous effort from pupils of Oban High School, raising money for their exchange visit to Laurinberg, North Carolina later this year. Stuart Cannon very generously provided the Kames Fish Farm work barge and extra labour, who together with David Keate and myself, managed to remove and dispose of a huge quantity of rubbish from around the loch. The end result was that the entire beach between Degnish Point and Kames Bay was cleared of all rubbish that had accumulated over the year. Not only does this benefit all residents of the community and visitors to the area, but also a total of £615 was raised for local children's organisations (mainly the Oban High School exchange students and the Kilmelford Playgroup).

Without the dedication and hard work put in by the small band of volunteers each year on this project, we would end up with a shoreline not dissimilar to that suffered by Arrochar. I would urge anyone that enjoys our beautiful and special piece of shoreline to come and join in next Spring (date to be announced).

Anyone wishing to assist the organisation of next year's beach clean, with a view to raising funds for the benefit of local children's groups or activities should contact me (Neil Manchester) on 200272 for further details.

BULBS THAT LOVE KILMELFORD

One of the nice things about living in Kilmelford is that a whole host of bulbs thrive in our wet and windy gardens. Do you remember the wonderful show of daffodils last spring? They were an unforgettable sight in gardens and on road verges, almost as if the whole area was taking part in a flower show.

The first bulbs in my garden are SNOWDROPS – double and single forms. A few bulbs quickly make a clump, and then the clump should be divided into groups of 5 or 6 bulbs and be immediately replanted. Soon they will make a carpet. The time to do this division is any time while they are obviously growing, gardeners call it being “in the green”, so do it before or after flowering just as the flowers fade on a grey drizzly day and they won't know they have been moved.

Another bulb is CHIONODOXA – the “glory of the snow” – usually with bright light blue flowers, but a pink variety is available. They rapidly form a clump, and like snowdrops benefit from being divided, most easily “in the green”, but division can be done at any time, for example if you suddenly dig up a clump later in the year. The leaves of snowdrops and chionodoxa only last for 3 or 4 weeks after flowering and then leave the border looking neat and tidy.

DAFFODIL leaves last for at least 6 weeks after the flowers have shrivelled and the leaves should NOT be cut off, or twisted or tied in a knot, as it is only undamages leaves that feed goodness back into the bulbs to make bigger and more bulbs to flower next year. But I must admit that those leaves are untidy!

Another blue bulb is the GRAPE HYACINTH (Muscari) – usually a much darker blue than chionodoxas – and they often flower at the same time as daffodils. Their thin leaves too persist an awful long time, but again big clumps develop quickly. I divide these clumps once the leaves have died away.

How about TULIPS? I love them and by choosing carefully you can have them in flower from early March to late May. They come in all sizes from 2” - 24” tall, all colours and oddly quite a number of different shapes – many early (Kaufmania) varieties open like stars in sunshine, and lily flowering forms have an elegant “waist” with the tips of the petals flaring outwards. Now I find wind is a problem as their stems are rigid and snap easily so I choose tulips which have short stems and try not to choose any which are more than 18” tall. Tulips do not multiply in my garden and many die after flowering so I order new bulbs each year.

Bulbs that flower from late March to early July are the DUTCH IRIS which come in white, blues and yellow. They have strong sturdy stems and stand up well to wind. I find they usually last for 2 years and then need replacing.

Oh dear! I forgot all about CROCUSES which are sociable plants and love growing in clumps, but woe is me, the mice love them too! Try growing them in a planter, especially if it is raised above the ground. Or plant in the lawn, but don't cut the grass until the leaves have died down.

Well that is enough to be going on with except for one last "tip". All bulbs hate being sodden and wet and quickly rot if they are. So when I am planting bulbs I take a bucket of gritty sand or gravel with me and plant all bulbs on top of a ½" – 1" thick layer. The gravel/grit layer lets the water run away quickly and bulb roots happily grow through it to reach the soil below.

Bulbs are in the shops and garden centres now, and now is the time to buy and plant for next year's display.
